

One-day Modules for Transition Year Students 2016*

Time frame: 10 am – 4pm

Tuition Cost: €200 for a class group

Light lunch available @ €5 per person or students bring their own

One day modules available:

1. Working with Conflict:

- Understanding conflict in our own lives and communities
- Conflict analysis
- Behaviour in conflict – Avoiding the temptations
- Options in responding to conflict
- Communications skills in conflict situations
- Circle work – Restorative process
- Taking responsibility
- From debate to dialogue
- Building our capacity

2. Exploring Identity and Diversity

- How we see ourselves/How we see others
- Stereotypes and myths of otherness
- Multiple/changing identities
- Conflict and hardening identity
- Culture, religion and diversity
- Interculturalism
- Irish/British Narratives
- Immigration & refugee crisis
- Seeking asylum in Ireland

3. Building Peace in Northern Ireland

- What we know about the Troubles
- What we don't know
- Why we need to understand
- Partition and two states
- Sectarianism in NI
- Civil Rights
- Cost of the Troubles
- The peace process and Good Friday Agreement
- The situation now
- Building a shared future

4. Finding the Leader Within

- Social contexts & relationships
- Possible roles of leaders
- Styles & models of leadership
- Working in groups
- Listening skills
- Dealing with conflict & challenges
- Creative problem solving
- Decision making & representing others
- Making plans
- Supporting roles

*These modules are designed for Transition Year students but can be adapted for other age groups

For more information or bookings contact:

Eamon Rafter eamon.rafter@glencree.ie or Kieran Allen kieran.allen@glencree.ie